FLINT - A fee-only investment adviser will offer a free seminar on retirement planning and investments later this month at a local union hall.

David Kudla, chief executive officer of Mainstay Capital Management in Grand Blanc, and members of his staff will offer the 90-minute session at 6 p.m. Aug. 23 at UAW Local 659, 4549 Van Slyke Road.

The event is open to the public as well as current and retired autoworkers, Kudla said. Topics include 401(k), Individual Retirement Accounts, taxes and common investment mistakes.

"It's truly an education seminar and it's not a sales pitch," Kudla said.

Seating is limited, and advanced reservations are required. If you are unable to attend, the same free information packet provided to participants is also available, Kudla said.

Mainstay, a fee-only, independent adviser, manages more than $400 million held in client 401(k) and IRAs, as well as providing a wide range of other investment advice.
